HOW TO SOLVE A CRYPTIC CROSSWORD

So, you want to learn how to do a Cryptic Crossword? Woohoo! If you keep reading, you will discover the magical world of cryptic crosswords! Don't be worried about it being too hard, it is actually very easy once you know the tricks on how to read the clues. Read on to discover the secrets to cryptic crosswords. Your future as a master cryptic crossword-er awaits! Below you will see an explanation of each clue, with an example of each clue on the crossword, once you've had a go at solving it, check the answers for a detailed breakdown of how to solve the clue.

Each clue will have an "indicator" word that tells you how to solve it.

* Anagram Indicator: Words such as broken, confused, invented, at sea, rearranged, mixed, smashed, etc. tell you that the word is jumbled up and the answer will be an anagram of one or more words seen in the clue. 1 Down is an anagram clue, try and see if you can solve it!

* Reversal indicators: For these clues, you need to look out for words such as flipped, come back, reversed, reflected, etc. This means that the answer is the reverse of a part of the clue. 2 Down is a reversal clue, see if you can solve it!

* Container indicators: When you see the indicator work for a container clue, it will mean that one word in the clue will be placed inside of another word from the clue. Words such as hugging, getting into, keeping, placed in, wrapping etc. 1 Across is an example of a container clue, go see if you can solve it!

* Hidden word indicators: Words such as a bit of, inside of, hidden, part of, etc. indicate that the answer is hidden within the clue. 4 Across is a hidden word indicator, see if you can find the answer!

* Homophone indicators: This clue has to be said out loud to "hear" what the answer is. You will know it needs to be read out loud through words in the clue such as, said, outspoken, sounds like, I hear. 3 Down is a homophone clue, have a go!

* Spooner Indicator: This indicator is easily identifiable with the presence of the word "Spooner" in the clue. When you see the word spooner, you know that two of the words need their first letters swapped. 5 Across is an example of a Spooner clue, now try and solve the clue!

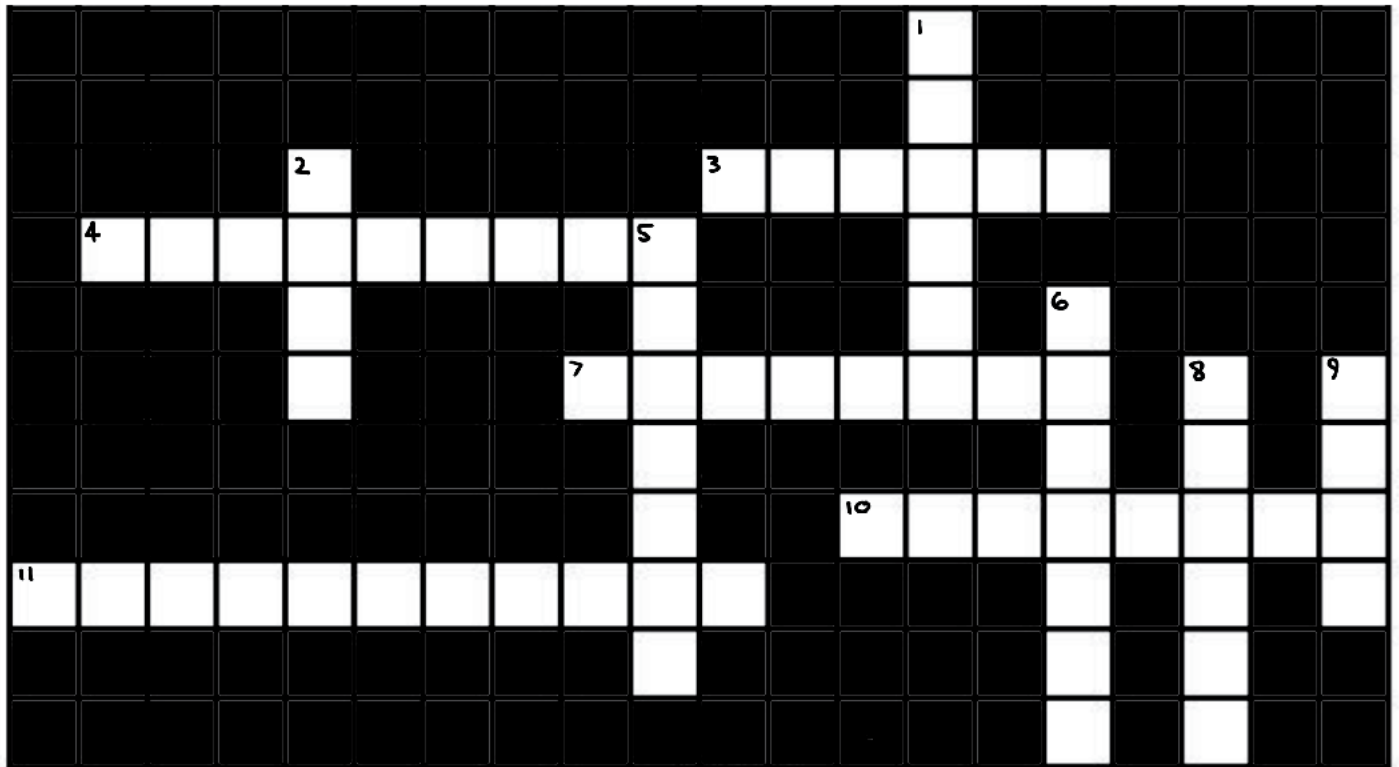

Across

1. AI was hugged by the PM by a shady tree
4. Small insect hidden in Antartica
5. Mrs Spooner had belly jeans from small lollies

[illegible]

SUDOKU

Every square has to contain a single number

Only the numbers from 1 through to 9 can be used

Once the puzzle is solved, this means that every row, column, and 3×3 box will contain every number from 1 to 9 exactly once.

In other words, no number can be repeated in any 3×3 box, row, or column.

Each 3×3 box can only contain each number from 1 to 9 once

CROSSWORD

solutions

cryptic example

Across:

1. Al was hugged by the PM by a shady tree. (4 letters) In this clue, the indicator work is hugged by that tells you that Al goes inside of the letters PM. This would spell Palm, which is a shady tree, so the answer would be Palm.

4. Small insect hidden in Antarctica (3 letters). The word hidden shows you that the answer will be hiding in the clue: Small insect hidden in Antarctica. So you get the answer Ant.

5. Mrs Spooner had belly jeans from small lollies. (5 letters, 5 letters) The clue shows us that it will be two words, and it is a spooner clue. When we swap the first letters of belly jeans you get jelly beans, which are small lollies, so the answer is jelly beans.

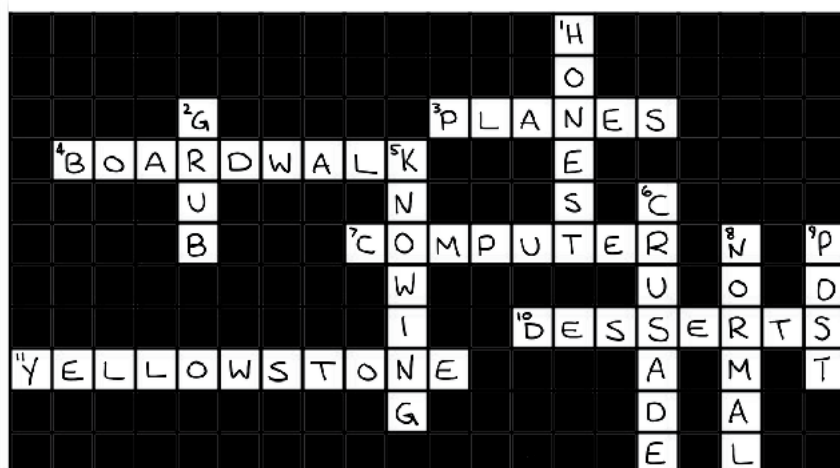

Down:

1. Bad ships at sea rip tea (6 letters). Here we see the indicator "at sea" so we know that it is an anagram, we know it is 6 letters so we would look at the words "rip tea", if we rearrange rip tea we get the answer "Pirate" which are bad ships.

2. Something to hold tea is reflected in gum (3 letters). The word reflected is the indicator that something in the clue needs to be reversed. Because the answer is three words, we look at the three letter words and flip them, gum backwards is mug, which is something that holds tea, so the answer is Mug.

3. Wait, her meal is being served, I hear. (6 letters). Seeing I hear indicates that this clue should be said out loud. When you said "Wait Her" it sounds like waiter, who serves meals, so the answer is Waiter.
